REHEARSALS AND PERFORMANCES (COVID-19 POLICY)

Rehearsals are scheduled for every Tuesday and Thursday, 2:30 - 3:45 p.m. We will have flexible, socially distanced rehearsals determined by the room space available. Some rehearsals will be sectional sized, others slightly larger. A full rehearsal will happen as space becomes available or will be held outdoors in suitable weather. It is important for the integrity of the ensemble for each student to attend each rehearsal that they may safely come to. Students exhibiting symptoms of COVID 19 should stay at home. We will be using several mitigation techniques according to each instrument. Performances will be scheduled and determined by the availability of a space suitable for social distancing or outdoors. If SPC goes into lockdown or quarantine, a virtual assignment may be substituted.

TEXTS/MATERIALS

The student will not be required to purchase a textbook or printed music. The school will furnish printed materials to be used during the semester. The student is responsible for bringing his music to every rehearsal and performance and turning it in, in good condition, after a performance or as requested by the instructor. The student will be required to reimburse the school for any missing or damaged music.

The student may use his own instrument; however, school-owned instruments and accessories, if they are available, may be checked out by the student as needed. Students using school-owned instruments will be required to sign an instrument check out contract. The school also furnishes many accessories; however, woodwind players must provide their own reeds, brass players must provide their own valve, slide, or rotary oil, and percussionists must provide their own snare sticks, keyboard mallets, and timpani mallets. The student is responsible for bringing his instrument to every rehearsal and performance, and maintaining its condition throughout the semester. Any mechanical problems with a school-owned instrument should be reported immediately to an instructor. The student will be required to reimburse the school for a missing or damaged instrument or accessory.

GRADING

The final grade will be assigned according to Participation/Contribution, and Concert Participation/Virtual Assignment submission.

A student who does not participate in any announced performance or submit a virtual assignment for a reason other than Covid 19 exposure could automatically fail the course and forfeit their scholarship.

Other “Absences” from performances may possibly be considered excused, but only in the case of dreadful, dire emergencies. This consideration will be entirely up to the instructor.

The final letter grade will be awarded according to final average as follows:

Final average of 90 or above = A

80 thru 90 = B

70 thru 80 = C

60 thru 70 = D

Below 60 = F
